

21 Nov 13 SCC Resolution #5 Rescinding Recognition of U.S. Representative Liz Cheney as “Republican” Representative

Government

WHEREAS, An extremely vocal majority of Wyoming Republicans voted in their County Parties individually, as well as in the State Party collectively, to formally censure, call for a personal appearance by, and demand the resignation of, Representative Liz Cheney, for violating the precepts of integrity and due process, for failing to faithfully represent a very large majority of motivated Wyoming Republican Voters, and for neglecting her duty to represent the will of the people who elected her as well as the political party she claims to be a member of, support, and share values with; and

WHEREAS, Also mentioned in the resolution of censure, “Representative Liz Cheney stood in a leadership role within the U.S. House Republican Conference as the Conference Chair, yet by her actions, she put that role in jeopardy by violating the spirit and expected posture of a Republican leader within the House Republican Conference.” Representative Liz Cheney has since lost that position of leadership, and is now at risk of losing her committee assignments as well as her membership to the House Republican Conference itself, further devaluing the political influence of the State of Wyoming because of her own unilateral political agenda and personal actions; and

WHEREAS, To further her own personal political agenda, Representative Liz Cheney has not only caused massive disruption, distraction, and division within the House Republican Conference, but has also willingly, happily, and energetically joined forces with, and proudly pledged allegiance to democrat Speaker of the House Pelosi, as a means of serving her own personal interests while ignoring the interests, needs, and expectations of Wyoming Republicans; and

WHEREAS, Representative Liz Cheney, through her official capacity as a U.S. Representative, has chosen to reject the voices of her own constituents, her own espoused political party, and her own colleagues in the House Republican Conference, in order to continue her personally motivated witch hunt of a President who is no longer in office; and

WHEREAS, Representative Liz Cheney has attempted to legitimize her actions and personal political agenda by referring to the majority of Wyoming Republican Voters with terms such as “a misinformed mob, radical extremists, bigots, racists, promoters of the ‘big lie’, enemies of the state, conspiracy theorists, dangerous rot, & white supremacists”; and

WHEREAS, Over the past 6 months, Representative Liz Cheney has chosen not to acknowledge, respond to, or satisfy the call to “appear before this body at its next stated meeting to explain her actions to this body, the State Republican Party membership, and the entirety of the concerned Wyoming electorate” demanded in the resolution of censure; and

WHEREAS, Representative Liz Cheney has failed to recognize that her elected position is not only with the U.S. House of Representatives, or the House Republican Conference, but also with, and as an emissary of, the Wyoming Republican Party. A position of Republican emissary who was elected by a majority of Wyoming Republican Voters to represent the will, values, expectations, and the formally stated preferences of that majority of Wyoming Republican Voters; and

WHEREAS, Although the Wyoming Republican Party may have no legal standing or path to demand the formal removal of Representative Liz Cheney as the lone U.S. Representative to the State of Wyoming, the Wyoming Republican Party also has no legal requirement to personally recognize or embrace Representative Liz Cheney as an emissary, representative, friend, or ally of the Wyoming Republican Party.; and

WHEREAS, all actions of the Wyoming Republican Party cited above are fully supported as legitimate and mandated by Wyoming Statute Title 22-4-118(a)(v)(F):
